

Patricia Underwood

Comes to Rappahannock with over thirty years of experience in the arts. She holds an undergraduate degree in Fine Arts and a Masters Degree in Printmaking. Patricia ran a successful quilt design business for over ten years. She has teaching experience at several colleges and prep schools, most recently at the Maryland Institute, College of Art and the Landon School. She exhibits her own work nationally and internationally. She brings a wealth of knowledge and skills to her students.

Castle Spring Studio
103 Castleton Ford Road
Castleton, VA 22716

GRAND OPENING

Saturday, October 20th

Sunday, October 21st

1-5 p.m.

Raindate 10/27 & 10/28

&

EXHIBITION of Selected works

A unique artist's teaching studio and printmaking
Facility

103 Castleton Ford Road
Castleton, VA 22716
540.937.6237

punderwd@erols.com
www.punderwood.com

Studio Overlooking the Shenandoah National Park

Castle Spring Studio

is located on 22 beautiful acres in Rappahannock County Virginia, just 1 1/2 hours from Washington, D.C. and 50 minutes from Dulles International airport. The Studio features a 27" wide etching press, on which monoprints, collographs, etchings and woodcuts can be created.

Lodging is available at many charming local B&B's for those taking our two-day workshops.

Classes Offered

- ◆ PRINTMAKING - monoprint, collograph, intaglio and woodblock
- ◆ DRAWING -
landscape, still life and model
- ◆ WATERBASED MEDIA -
Acrylic, watercolor, gouache, ink

Workshops

- ◆ SEE MONTHLY CALENDAR
- ◆ PRIVATE GALLERY AND MUSEUM TOURS
- ◆ VISITING ARTISTS

Consulting

- ◆ PORTFOLIO CONSULTATION - high school, college, professional
- ◆ COLOR & SPACE DESIGN

Please call
540.937.6237 (studio)
301.580.1377
To inquire

Nestled at the base of Castle Mountain, the studio overlooks meadows, a pond and great vistas of the Blue Ridge Mountains, all ideal for sketching and painting.

Charcoal and wash drawing